

The Northern Virginia First Responders (NVFR) Scholarship Fund at the Community Foundation for Northern Virginia (CFNOVA), will grant scholarships worth up to $20,000 to students in the Northern Virginia area who demonstrate academic achievement, financial need, and plan on attending higher education in Fall of 2022.

Each recipient will receive up to $5,000 per year (maximum 4 years) towards the higher education they will be attending in Fall 2022, as long as the recipient continues to meet the renewal eligibility requirements. The amount, availability, and number of scholarships may vary from year to year depending on funding.

Eligibility for 2022 Scholarship:

1. Student must be a graduating senior from a high school, home school, or secondary school and must be a resident of the Counties of Arlington, Fairfax, Fauquier, Loudoun, Orange, and Prince William; and the Cities of Alexandria, Falls Church, Fairfax, Manassas, and Manassas Park.
2. Student must either be an active first responder (Police, Fire, EMT) or a dependent of an active first responder (volunteer or paid)
3. Student is eligible if he or she (or guardian) is in good standing with the department, and has been "active" a minimum of one year
4. Student must have a GPA of 3.5 or higher to apply
5. Student must be in good standing with the county school system and/or demonstrate high moral character
6. Demonstrate financial need (see below)

Scholarship Renewal Eligibility Requirements:

Once a scholarship has been awarded, recipients of the scholarship must meet eligibility requirements for the scholarship to be renewed in subsequent years. Those requirements include both GPA minimums of 3.0, good standing with the school system with high moral character, and verification of financial need.

Completed applications must be received by Friday, April 29, 2022. Applications must be emailed to firstrespondernova@gmail.com. Applications must include:

1. Completed application
2. Compliant essay response
3. Copy of your current high school transcript (pdf format)
4. References (pdf format on company letter head with signatures)
5. FAFSA Student Aid Report

Scholarship Awards:

Our selection committee will rank the applications based upon the applicant's GPA, verification of service, financial need, references, and essays. The highest-ranking applicants will be invited to an interview in May or June 2022. Following the interviews, the selection committee will recommend awardees of the scholarship – no later than the end of June 2022. Recipient may be expected to attend a Commitment Meeting (possibly via zoom) in June 2022, to which parents and/or guardians are encouraged to attend.
