New Report Reveals Nonprofits Drive $1.6 Billion in Economic Activity Across Northern Virginia

Report highlights opportunities for renewed investment

Fairfax, VA (September 30, 2025) – The Community Foundation for Northern Virginia’s data research center, *Insight Region*®, proudly presents: The State of Nonprofits in Northern Virginia. The report highlights critical research that underscores both the immense value and the growing vulnerability of Northern Virginia’s nonprofit sector. This report helps readers understand the critical role nonprofits play in Northern Virginia’s economy.

Nonprofits in our region are not only service providers, they are economic drivers, community builders, and essential partners in ensuring opportunity and well-being for all. With over $1.6 billion in annual economic activity, their contributions are foundational to the region’s prosperity.

The report features contributions from Alan J. Abramson, PhD, Professor and Center Director, Center on Nonprofits, Philanthropy, and Social Enterprise, Schar, School of Policy and Government at George Mason University and Terry L. Clower, PhD, Director, Center for Regional Analysis, Northern Virginia Chair, Professor of Public Policy, Schar School of Policy and Government at George Mason University.

“Northern Virginia’s nonprofit sector is a cornerstone of our region’s economic and social vitality. At the Community Foundation, we believe that investments in our region helps to ensure nonprofits have the resources and resilience to thrive. This report is a call to action for all of us who care about the future of the nonprofit community in Northern Virginia.” – Renée Byng Yancey, President and CEO of the Community Foundation for Northern Virginia.
