Community Foundation for Northern Virginia Chairman Lynn Tadlock
Wins Trustee Leadership Award from Leadership Fairfax
Annual Award Given for Exceptional Visionary Leadership

Oakton, VA (October 2, 2013) - Lynn Tadlock, Chairman of the Community Foundation for Northern Virginia and Deputy Executive Director of the Claude Moore Charitable Foundation, will receive the Trustee Leadership Award presented by Leadership Fairfax at their 17th Annual Northern Virginia Leadership Awards Luncheon on November 7, 2013 at the Westwood Country Club in Vienna, Virginia.

The award recognizes a person who has demonstrated strong visionary leadership throughout Northern Virginia and has embraced new opportunities while taking innovative approaches to form successful partnerships and deliver results. Tadlock's distinguished initiatives have offered leadership lessons not only within individual organizations, but also across the broader public sector, positively affecting the Northern Virginia community at large.

"Lynn has exhibited tremendous leadership for the Community Foundation, contributing to the significant impact we provide in the Northern Virginia community. We are very proud she has been selected for this prestigious award," said Eileen Ellsworth, President of the Community Foundation for Northern Virginia.
